All Access Weekend returns for a second year! Four hundred students from all over the Triangle area will come together for an amazing weekend with a live band, awesome messages, and an opportunity to serve alongside each other. This year we will be taking a look at questions...questions you have about God and the questions you should have when it comes to your own life. Our goal is to provide you and your friends a life changing weekend that won't soon be forgotten!

who?

Any Student can go, no matter where you live or who you're friends with. The only qualification is that you have to be a student in the 6-12th grade.

Rules/Guidelines:

Our goal for All Access Weekend is for it to be one of the best weekends of your life! Following the guidelines below will help protect anyone from getting hurt and will keep you from being sent home and ending your weekend prematurely. Thanks in advance for your cooperation to help make this happen!

Behavior, attitude, and boundaries are determined by one word: RESPECT.

- > RESPECT God, RESPECT others, RESPECT facilities, and RESPECT yourself.
- > Please participate in all weekend activities: worship session, small group study, and mission experience
- > You may not leave AAW or your host home at any time unless you have filled out a "time away" card
- > Prescribed medication must be turned in at registration in a Ziploc bag with a completed medication form inside
- > Your small group leader is in charge at all times
- > Students are not allowed to drive at any time over the weekend unless you are driving with a time card and only for the time away. Students will not transport other students or luggage at any time.
- > The telephone of your host family should be used only in an emergency
- > Even if you do not like the food we or your host home provides, eat something! Your body needs fuel
- > No one is allowed in a host home of the opposite sex for any reason
- > Dress appropriately. Leave any questionable attire at home
- > Take care of homes & facilities. Students and their parents will be held responsible for any property damage.
- > No pranks are allowed or tolerated
- > No mp3 players or video game systems and no cell phone usage during sessions
- > If something doesn't belong to you, do not take or touch it!
- > No fighting. This is a one way ticket to a very short weekend
- > No tobacco, alcohol, or drugs will be tolerated
- > No weapons of any kind are permitted

I have read and understand the above guidelines.
